Appendix 2 – National Federation Conflict of Interest Policy

The National Federation Code of Conduct (the Code) requires volunteers, nominators, and employees to take reasonable steps to avoid any conflict of interest, real or apparent, in connection with their role and the development of its Long List of Athletes.

A real conflict of interest occurs where there is a conflict between their duty and personal interests of an athlete that improperly influences the outcome of their task.

An apparent conflict of interest occurs where it appears that an employee's personal interests could improperly influence the performance of his or her duties, but this is not in fact the case.

The appearance of a conflict can be just as damaging to athlete and member confidence in public administration as a conflict which gives rise to a concern based on objective facts.

Conflicts of interest, real or apparent, cannot always be avoided. Where this is the case, the Code requires all members of the National Federation to disclose details of any material personal interest of the member in connection with their nomination.

Athletes are entitled to have confidence in the integrity of the Nomination Panel, and to know that the Nomination Panel or employee's personal interests do not conflict with his or her duties.
